

North Africa Fireproof Cable Tray Price Company

AI Overview

Fireproof cable trays in North Africa vary widely in price depending on material, finish, and supplier, typically ranging from moderate to premium costs for industrial-grade solutions. Key Suppliers and Manufacturers Several reputable cable tray manufacturers serve North Africa, offering fire-resistant and durable options:

- El Sewedy Electric (Egypt): Supplies cable trays for energy, infrastructure, and telecommunications projects across Africa and the Middle East, including fireproof and corrosion-resistant options.
- Legrand: Offers industrial and commercial cable management solutions, including fire-rated trays, with adherence to international standards.
- Hutaib Electricals (South Africa): Produces a wide range of cable trays, including ladder, perforated, and basket types, with finishes such as GI hot-dip, powder-coated, and stainless steel (SS 202/304/316) suitable for fireproof applications.
- Advanced Strut: Provides metal cable trays in stainless steel and galvanised finishes, suitable for corrosive and high-temperature environments.

Factors Affecting Price

- Material: Stainless steel (304/316) and hot-dip galvanised trays are more expensive than pre-galvanised or powder-coated options.
- Fireproof Rating: Trays certified for fire resistance or high-temperature tolerance command higher prices. Certification standards may vary by country.
- Tray Type and Size: Ladder, perforated, and basket trays differ in cost, with wider or heavier-duty trays being more expensive.
- Accessories: Bends, elbows, tees, and junction boxes add to the overall cost.
- Supplier Location and Shipping: Importing trays from South Africa or Europe to North Africa may increase costs due to logistics and customs.

Estimated Price Range While exact prices are not publicly listed, industrial-grade fireproof cable trays in North Africa typically range from $20 to $150 per meter, depending on mat...
