

Qionglai Mesh Cable Tray Manufacturer

AI Overview

Shanghai Qiongkai Industrial Co., Ltd. and Shanghai Qinkai Industry Co., Ltd. are leading manufacturers of high-quality wire mesh cable trays in China. Shanghai Qiongkai Industrial Co., Ltd. Founded in 2005, Shanghai Qiongkai Industrial Co., Ltd. specializes in cable management and support systems, including wire mesh cable trays, ladder trays, and perforated trays. Their headquarters is located in Songjiang Port Science and Technology City, Shanghai, with additional production bases in Jiangsu Yangzhou and Hebei Langfang. Qiongkai offers: Customized powder-coated perforated and mesh cable trays for high-strength support and color-coded identification. Advanced production facilities with over 60 heavy machinery units, enabling tailored solutions for complex projects. Comprehensive services including design, R&D, manufacturing, sales, and installation support. Their products are designed for durability, corrosion resistance, and efficient cable management in industrial, commercial, and data center applications. Shanghai Qinkai Industry Co., Ltd. Shanghai Qinkai Industry Co., Ltd. is another prominent manufacturer of wire mesh cable trays in China. Key features include: High-quality materials ensuring corrosion and fire resistance. Versatile sizes and configurations to accommodate different cable loads and installation requirements. Open mesh design for optimal airflow, preventing overheating of cables. Efficient production and supply for both small and large-scale projects. Qinkai focuses on providing cost-effective, reliable solutions for cable routing and management in complex installations. Additional Considerations When sourcing mesh cable trays from Qionglai or other Chinese manufacturers, consider: Customization options: Many manufacturers offer RAL color coatings, reinforced profiles, and specific dimensions. Production capacity: Companies like Qiongkai and Qinkai have multiple production lines and heavy machinery to handle large orders efficiently. Global shipping and compliance: Ensure the manufac...
