

Uganda wholesale price for 8-core optical fiber separator

AI Overview

Wholesale 8-core fiber optic cables in Uganda start at approximately $0.37 per meter, with splitters available from local suppliers at competitive bulk rates. Pricing Overview For 8-core fiber optic cables, wholesale prices typically start at $0.37 per meter, depending on the supplier, volume, and shipping terms. These cables are suitable for telecommunications projects and large-scale installations. While specific prices for 8-core optical fiber splitters are not always listed online, local suppliers in Uganda such as AEDHS.com and Jiji Uganda offer bulk fiber optic products, including splitters, adapters, and patch cords, with pricing available upon request. Local Suppliers and Wholesale Options AEDHS.com: Supplies a wide range of fiber optic products across Uganda, including Kampala, Gulu, Lira, Mbarara, Mbale, Jinja, and other cities. They provide door-to-door delivery and can quote wholesale prices for splitters and cables. Jiji Uganda: Offers fiber optic splitters and related equipment for sale in Kampala, with options for bulk purchases. TradeKey Uganda: Connects buyers with verified suppliers of fiber optic tools and components, including splitters, fusion splicers, and termination kits, suitable for wholesale procurement. Import and Market Insights According to Volza's import data, Uganda imported 196,020 fiber optic shipments between July 2024 and June 2025, with China, Ukraine, and India as the top exporting countries. This indicates a competitive market with multiple international suppliers, which can influence wholesale pricing and availability. Recommendations Contact local suppliers directly for custom quotes on 8-core optical fiber splitters, as prices vary by volume and brand. Consider importing from China or India for large-scale projects, as these countries are major exporters and may offer lower per-unit costs. Verify delivery options and duty-paid shipping to...
