

Uruguay Optical Cable Manufacturer

AI Overview

Key optical cable suppliers in Uruguay include Praferly S.A., Mouser Electronics, and several verified local exporters. Local Manufacturers and Distributors Praferly S.A. is a leading provider of fiber optic solutions in Uruguay, offering a wide range of high-quality equipment and services tailored to ICT and communication technology needs. They partner with world-class manufacturers to ensure reliable products and provide dedicated support for installation and maintenance. Mouser Electronics Uruguay serves as an authorized distributor for multiple international fiber optic cable manufacturers, including Broadcom and Banner Engineering. They offer a broad selection of fiber optic cables with detailed specifications, pricing, and datasheets, making them a convenient source for businesses seeking imported optical cables. Exporters and Trade Insights Uruguay has several fiber optic cable exporters that supply both domestic and international markets. These include industrial companies and authorized distributors that manage supply chains for commercial distribution. Export data shows that Uruguay exported $122k of optical fibers and cables in 2024, primarily to the Netherlands, Venezuela, Brazil, Chile, and the United States. This indicates a modest but active local production and export ecosystem. Import Sources Uruguay imports a significant portion of its optical cables, mainly from China, Brazil, the United States, Poland, and Mexico, reflecting the reliance on international manufacturers for high-volume or specialized fiber optic products. Additional Suppliers For broader options, platforms like Environmental Expert list companies near Uruguay that specialize in optical fiber instruments and systems, including Avantes, JASCO, and AMETEK Process Instruments. While these companies focus on fiber optic spectroscopy and analytical instruments, they may also provide specialized fiber optic components or consultancy for industrial applications. Summary Businesses in Uruguay can source optical cables through: Local manufact...
