

You can find affordable low-voltage cable trays online at ShowMeCables, Discount Low Voltage, McMaster-Carr, Amazon, CableOrganizer, and local distributors like Graybar or Platt Electric Supply. Online Retailers ShowMeCables offers a wide range of low-voltage wire holders, duct, spools, D-rings, lacing bars, and wire mesh cable trays with same-day shipping options. They provide bulk pricing for larger orders, making it cost-effective for commercial projects. Discount Low Voltage specializes in cable runways and ladder-style trays made of tubular steel with powder-coated finishes. Their products are UL-certified and can save up to 20% compared to similar quality trays. McMaster-Carr carries over 850 cable tray products in various styles and sizes, including ladder, solid-bottom, and ventilated trays, with same- and next-day delivery. Amazon has a large selection of wire mesh and under-desk cable trays, including bulk packs and adjustable options. Prices vary, and many items offer free shipping or Prime discounts. CableOrganizer provides basket, snake, solid, and ladder cable trays with accessories. They offer solutions for overhead or under-floor installations, suitable for both commercial and industrial setups. Legrand and Kable Kontrol offer precision-engineered wire mesh trays with patented designs for safe and durable cable management. Local and Wholesale Distributors Graybar and Platt Electric Supply stock a wide range of cable trays and fittings, including ladder, wire basket, and tubular runway types. These suppliers often provide local pickup and volume discounts. eBay can be a source for discounted or surplus cable trays, including pre-owned wire mesh trays and bulk lots, which can significantly reduce costs for large projects. Tips for Finding Affordable Options Compare bulk pricing: Many suppliers offer discounts for orders of 10 or more trays. Check shipping costs: Some online ret...
